EVENTS & PROGRAMS GUIDE

Seven events. Real recruiters. Practical skills. June is graduation season — and whether you just got your diploma or you're years into your career and ready for what's next, this month we built everything around one idea: your next move starts here.

June is when people stop waiting and start acting.

Not because of a diploma. Because something clicked — a layoff, a plateau, a conversation that made it obvious the next move isn't coming to you. This month every PMI-LA event is built around that moment: what to do when you're ready to move but not sure where.
